

Recommended EKU Graduate-level Art Classes for

Master of Arts in Education: Secondary - ART concentration

AED 761: Materials Inquiry in Art Education. (3 hours)

Open to graduate and Master of Arts in Teaching students in Art Education. Diversified inquiry into art materials and processes in the elementary and secondary schools. Maximum number of repeatable hours: 6.

ART 760 Workshop in Art and Design: _____ . (3 hours) Intensive study in a specific phase of the visual arts. Current processes, materials, and theoretical foundations will be considered. May be retaken with different topics to a maximum of nine hours.

ART 763 Art Theory & Criticism (3 hours) Prerequisites: Departmental Approval. A seminar that investigates leading historical and contemporary theories and analytical methodologies that impact the ways in which art is produced, viewed, and written about today.

ART 800 Drawing. (3 hours) Prerequisite: six hours of work in the specialization named or consent of the instructor. Students may register for no more than nine hours of any specialization offered.

ART 810 Painting. (3 hours) Prerequisite: six hours of work in the specialization named or consent of the instructor. Students may register for no more than nine hours of any specialization offered.

ART 830 Printmaking. (3 hours) Prerequisite: six hours of work in the specialization named or consent of the instructor. Students may register for no more than nine hours of any specialization offered.

ART 840 Jewelry and Metals. (3 hours) Prerequisite: six hours of work in the specialization named or consent of the instructor. Students may register for no more than nine hours of any specialization offered.

ART 870 Ceramics. (3 hours) Prerequisite: six hours of work in the specialization named or consent of the instructor. Students may register for no more than nine hours of any specialization offered.

For more information about these classes, email Dr. Ilona Szekely at Ilona.Szekely@eku.edu